If you are looking to get more involved in your local association but don’t know where to start, Central OEA/NEA offers interested members an Emerging Leaders program to get you on your way.

Come learn about...

• The many layers of the Association
• Learn what your Leadership Style is
• Issues you will encounter as an Association Leader
• Skills you will need as an Association Leader
• How you can become more involved in your Association
• How to become an OEA or NEA delegate to Rep Assembly and why
• What does OEA Headquarters look like....

Testimonial...

Two years ago, I was volunteered by a friend to join the Emerging Leaders program through Central OEA/NEA. To give you some background, I’m quiet, an introvert, and not a “take charge” kind of person, so to have someone suggest I be a part of a program about leaders in the union was scary! I actually thought my friend had lost her mind.

I had just spent the year as a building representative for my local union, and it was clear I still had much to learn, so I decided to attend. Wow -- I am so glad I did! This program opened my eyes and I was able to learn so much about the union at all the different levels.

I now have a better understanding of myself and my leadership style, parliamentary procedures, the roles of different leadership in the union, how the union specifically helps students and teachers in a variety of ways, and various experiences of those in the union from different locals. It also helped me understand more about Central OEA/NEA’s committees and where I can best use my skills.

~ Ashley Lambacher